

Biography of Daughters of Christ

Daughters of Christ (D.O.C.) is a four-member female Christian group, formed on May 16, 2008; the D.O.C. roster includes Tracy Fagans, LaTonya McDaniel, Shelia McIntosh and Petrina Williams Rush. Each Daughter is an active member of Macedonia Baptist Church of Sacramento, California where the Pastor is Jeffrey L. Johnson II. The Daughters serve in several church ministries including multiple choirs, praise and worship teams, the Theatrical Arts Ministry, Christian Education, Women's Ministry, Outreach Ministry, faculty at Sunday School, the Trustee Ministry, and Youth Ministry.

As a contemporary gospel group, the Daughters of Christ provide listeners with a melodious blend of traditional "churchy" gospel arrangements and edgier "get on your feet" grooves laced with unique beats and tight harmonies. The Daughters of Christ offer listeners a complete worship and praise experience, and supports the group's vision, which is to inspire and give hope to the world by sharing their faith in Jesus Christ through song. D.O.C. has been nominated Best Gospel Group in Sacramento and the Bay Area, multiple categories for the Rhythm of Gospel and Radio Alliance Awards, Best Gospel Group for the SHEMA Gospel Awards in South Africa, Best Video of the Year and Best Album of the Year for IGAA Awards, charted on the Billboard and Grammy nominated. Some places the Daughters have ministered at are California Gospel Cruise to Ocho Rios, Jamaica & Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands, Sacramento and Company (Channel10 News in Sacramento), California State Baptist Conventions, Juneteenth Festival, Sacramento's Black Expo, a live broadcast on SPIRIT IN YOU TV, CA Legislative Black Caucus, Woman in Me Symposium, NorCal GMWA James Cleveland & Helen Stephens-Voices of Christ Legacy Tribute, Northern District Baptist (NDBWA) Women's' Auxiliary program, a number of church functions, including Sacramento area church anniversary celebrations, fund raisers, musicals and revivals.

D.O.C.'s primary focus is sharing their faith in Jesus Christ through song. D.O.C. desires to spread Gods Word to all who have an ear and is willing to hear the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Whatever the individual situation or need is, D.O.C.'s continual aim is to offer Christ. "There may be someone who hears the message in the song and is prompted to run to Jesus wondering what they must do to be saved. For those who are already saved, they may be encouraged to develop a closer and intimate relationship with Christ. We understand that this ministry is not about us, for it's all about God. Everything that we are is because of God and only Him. We just feel so honored that God would choose us to be part of this type of ministry", says a D.O.C. member.

D.O.C. clearly states that they don't know what God has planned ahead for them. However, they will just take one day at a time while, prayerfully, drawing many people to Christ and helping all who God allows them to help. They are very firm on the statement, "It's all about Christ, not us." They realize that they were created for God's purpose and His will, and not their own. As daughters of the Most High God, they have committed to go, do, and say what God wants them to. They admitted that they are well aware of the fact that a lot comes along with this task that God has given them, but their response is that they can do all things through Christ who strengthens them. D.O.C. added, "With God being for us, He is more than the whole world against us. We will just take the blows and keep moving forward in Jesus name."
